(Brailsford) Culland, in 1198, belonged to the family of Shaw, afterwards to the Drapers. In 1683 Richard [? recte Robert] Draper, esq. died, and left this estate, consisting of 421 acres, to his three daughters [? recte sisters]. In 1709 Mr. George Newell, who had married a grand-daughter, became possessed of two-thirds, and afterwards of the remaining third, and sold the whole to John Port, of Ilam, esq. of whose descendant the major part was purchased by William Cox, esq. in 1794, and it is now the property of his eldest son, Edward Soresby Cox, of Brailsford, esq. --- Elizabeth, wife of Robert Draper, of Culland, gent, daughter of Richard Harpur, of Littleover, esq. and Elizabeth his wife. She died 22nd October, 1678. --- Dorothy, the daughter of Robert Draper, of Culland, gent, and Mary his wife, died August, 1683. [GLOVER II 139]

Robert Draper, Esq. the last heir male, died in the year 1683. The coheiresses married Roe, Jasson and Bate. [MAGNA BRITANNIA]
